

KAMLESH JAIN
PAST INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Kamlesh Jain, of Indore, India, served a two-year term as a director of The International Association of Lions Clubs following his election at the association's 77th International Convention, held in Phoenix, Arizona, USA, July 12-15, 1994.

Past Director Jain is an attorney, a tax consultant and the managing director of a company.

A member of the Indore Lions Club since 1968, Past Director Jain has held many positions within the association, including club president, district governor and council chairman, and chairman of his district's membership and project committees. Past Director Jain was also involved in the establishment of his district's eye bank and served as chairman of the District Governors-elect Orientation for incoming Indian district governors.

Past Director Jain has received numerous awards in recognition of his contributions to the association, including the 100% District Governor Award, two Leadership Awards, the International President's Special Commendation Award, six International President's Awards and the Ambassador of Good Will Award, the highest honor the association bestows upon its members.

In addition to his Lion activities, Past Director Jain is a trustee of Jain High School and College and a member of of his state's Welfare Association for the Blind.

Past Director Jain and his wife, Kanchan, have four children.